How WorkSource helps you find work

It all starts with a conversation. Make an appointment with an Employment Specialist! We discuss your job history, skills, interests, goals, and screen you for program eligibility. All services are free of charge and language services are available upon request!

Many customers just need help with their resume! Whether you attend one of our free workshops or have an Employment Specialist go over it with you, we can make sure your resume is good to go!

Not sure what to say during the interview? We can help with that too. You can schedule a mock interview with an Employment Specialist to prepare for the real thing!

During your initial meeting, your Employment Specialist might find that you're eligible for training scholarships or support services like transportation subsidies, interview clothing, and more!

Whatever your pathway, WorkSource is here to get you back to work. Whether it be by re-training, resume assistance, workshops, mock interviews, or just needing to use our resource room to apply—there are dozens of ways to use WorkSource. We have hundreds of employer connections across all industries to help you find a job! Make an appointment today!
